

WORKING WITH LGBTQ+ SURVIVORS OF INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE

Friday May
14th, 2021
@ 12pm EST

The training will discuss the dynamics of conducting group work with LGBTQ+ identified survivors of intimate partner violence and participants in battering intervention programs. This topic will be discussed using a systemic lens with attention given to how intersectional stigma, toxic masculinity, and heterosexism have created a culture where intimate partner violence has become an epidemic.

PRESENTER INFO

AVI DIAMOND

Avi Diamond serves as the LGBTQ+ Outreach Advocate at Women's Center & Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh. Her passion for social justice and fascination with human behavior has led to many different roles and settings in the non-profit sector. Avi holds a Master's degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and is a Board-Certified Music Therapist.

TAYLOR KYLE

Taylor Kyle is a MENS (Men Embracing Non-Violence & Safety) Intervention Specialist at Women's Center & Shelter of Pittsburgh. Her journey to service families within the community began with children who have emotional and developmental challenges. Taylor routinely conducts groups and individual counseling with men who use power and control in their intimate relationships. Taylor holds a Master's degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Pre-register to attend this event:

<https://forms.gle/iEFjsZeknuvTqJ9X6>